OPENING OF BIDS FOR REBUILDING OUR NAVY.

The Successful Bidders and Amounts Asked-An Increased Demand for American Tools in Mexico-No Appointments in the Interstate Commission-Notes. IWASHINGTON, March 23.-Bids were opened by the secretary of the navy to-day for furnishing 1,310 tons of gun steel and 4,500 tons of steel armor plates for naval purposes in connection with the manufacture of ordnance and the construction of new vessels. The amount available for the work is $2,275, 000. For the gun steel the Midvale Steel company bids $1,397,240; the Cambria Iron company bids $851, 513, and the Bethleham Iron company $902,230. For supplying armor plate, the Bethlehem Iron company bids $3,610,707, and the Cleveland Rolling Mill company $4,021,561.

Although the bids are in excess of the ap propriation, there is no doubt that contracts will be made for as large an amount as the department can expend. Secretary Whitney is agreeably surprised that such favorable figures should have been secured. The bids of the Bethleham Iron company are accompanied by a letter describing their facilities for performing the work, which letter Secretary Whitney says is very satisfactory and gratifying. The letter sets forth that the Bethleham Iron company has been most diligently engaged for more than a year in constructing a complete plant of forgoing machinery and tools adapted to the fabrication of all the parts of the largest guns used in part of the world, and of the shafts that may be required for vessels of any size that the United States government may require.

The establishment when completed will be in every respect fully able to compete with any establishment in Europe. The company has, up to this time, expended in cash on the forging plant alone between $300,000 and $400,000, and it is under contract obligations to the extent of $500,000 additional for machinery and tools, to be delivered within the current year. The amount required to complete the plants for both guns and armor plate will be in all about $1,500,000, and for his the financial arrangements are completed. The company owns or controls a large deposits of ore peculiarly suitable for such iron as is needed for steel forgings, so that it is certain of obtaining the best and most uniform quality of metal. The company is now turning out about 4,500 tons of Demand for American Tools.

WASHINGTON, March 23 .- Secretary of State Bayard has received from Mr. Allen, United States consul at Piedras Negras, Mex., a communication to the effect that there exists an increasing demand for American agricultural tools, particularly the American plow. The principal o stacle in the way of the development of our trade with Mexico, he says, is found to be the distrust entertained by a large proportion of the Mexicans toward our people, but the incoming of a better class of Americans is effecting change for the better, and the consul be lieves that before long confidence will take the place of distrust, and full recognition of community of interests be established.

Senator Jones' Silence.

WASHINGTON, March 23.-Mr. Hickey, a member of the Florida legislature, new in Washington, recently visited ex-Senator Jones at Detroit. He says the ex-senator in tends returning to Florida to meet the legis lature which convenes on April 5, at which time he will make a full explanation of hi absence from the United States senate during the past two years. Mr. Hickey's idea is that the ex-senator will show that he was sompelled to leave Washington or suffer disastrous consequences to his health.

Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, March 23 .-- There was a ful attendance at the regular cabinet meeting. The personnel of the interstate commerce commission was under discussion. It was announced, however, that the appointments could not be made just yet. It is understood that strong pressure is being brought to bear for the appointment of Governor Abbett, of New Jersey, as one of the commissioners.

Condition of Recorder Trotter.

WASHINGTON, March 23 -"Recorder Trot ter is somewhat better," said Dr. Reyburn, "but he is not by any means out of danger. His fever has diminished to some extent and the symptoms are altogether quite favorable, yet it will require much care before he has passed the danger line."

WASHINGTON, March 23.-Count M. A. Urice Sala, of the French legation, has been granted a leave of absence to take effect within a few weeks. M. Salanson has been appointed by the French government to si ceed Count Sala, as first secretary of the

LOGAN-ANDREWS WEDDING.

A Brilliant Social Event Takes Place at Youngstown, Ohio.

Youngstown, O., March 33 .- The nuptials of Mr. John A. Logan, Jr., and Miss Edith H. Andrews were solemnized at noon to-day by the Rev. Dr. D. H. Evans, in the palatial residence of C. H. Andrews, the bride's father. A car load of flowers and floral designs were tastefully arranged through the mansion. During the ceremony the couple stood directly under a floral bell of exquisite beauty. The bride was arrayed in a wedding gown of white satin, Marie Antoinette style, trimmed with were diamonds and pearls. The wedding money due him, nearly $1,200.

The groom was dressed in a black Prince Albert of broadcloth, low cut vest and exceedingly broad pantaloons.

During the ceremony, which was con-ducted according to the Episcopal ritual an orchestra played the "Romance" of Spohr. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and guests to the number of 150, partook of the wedding breakfast. At 3:35 o'clock the party left in Mr. Andrews' private car, Youngstown, enroute for Florida, where they will remain for a month. social event that ever has taken place in this

A check for $50,000, together with a deed for a valuable lot in the most aristocratic portion of the city, on which will be erected a handsome stone residence, constitute the gift to the bride by her father. A pearl necklace, with diamonds pendant, was the groom's present to his bride.

A WARNING TO CANADA.

Awakening of the Public Mind to the Danger She is Rushing Into. St. John, N. B., March 23 .- The Globe prints the following editorial: "The country will soon wake up to the folly of the policy of the government in regard to the figheries. The Journal at one time, almost single handed, from the first dissented from that policy. It was a policy which began in neglect, has been followed in ignorance, and is now being pushed to the verge of what almost seems like insanity. We are glad to see some signs in the press that there is an awakening of the public mind to the danger which is threatening the country.

"On the third of March, when the retaliatory bill passed the congress of the United States, we pointed out what its effect would be. If the president puts any part of the machinery of that bill in force he will strike a blow against the sole surviving interest here which is at all pecuniarily beneficial—our coasting trade with the United States. The papers in western Canada appear to think that because their interests are not menaced there is no danger to the country.

"We again warn people of the maritima provinces that their best interests are inperiled, that the first act on the part of our officials to harass American trade such, as a refusal to sell bait, to carry fish over cur railroads, to enforce recklessly our customs regulations against American fishermen, will in all probability compel the president to put into force the law, and that the burden will fall upon the vessels and trade of these three provinces."

The Murderous Bald Knobbers.

St. Louis, March 23.-Six of the Bald Knobbers who have been in confinement at Ozark, charged with being implicated in the murder of Eden and Green, have been re-leased on $1,000 and $2,000 bonds, it being shown that they were not directly con cerned in the killing. Several of the pris oners in the Springfield jail made a bold attempt Sunday night to escape. They dug through the floor of their cell and had tunneled some eight feet when they were discovered by Sheriff Dodsan and their scheme frustrated. Four of them were Bald Knobbers. It has been revealed that the Bald Knobbers kept a regular vengeance book in which were recorded the names of persons marked for some kind of persecution or punishment. It was the custom for members at their various meetings to prefer charges against individuals outside of their order and then those present voted what sort of punishment should be meted out to them.

Heavy Damage From Frost.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 23. - The temperature has been falling steadily for the last five days, and culminated yesterday in a freeze, which has perhaps wiped out over $100,000 of value on the truck farms in the vicinity of Charleston. The mercury yeste. day morning at 6 o'clock indicated thirty five degrees, and in exposed places reached the freezing point. There can, therefore, b no further doubt of the fact that a stagge. ing blow has been inflicted upon the growing fruit and vegetable crops, although it will be impossible to estimate the extent of the damage for a day or two yet. The freeze was general throughout the coast beit of the state, and what promised to be a most successful and remunerative crop has been so injured and delayed that Charleston truck farmers, who, ten days ago were counting up their prospective profits, are now trying to figure out the chances of getting out

The Harrison Monument.

CINCINNATI, March 23.—The passage of the bill in the legislature at its closing hour, authorizing the commissioners of Hamilton county to spend $25,000 for a monument to Gen. William Henry Harrison, was the work of Col. A. E. Jones, backed by his able lieutenant, Leopold Burckhardt, and they are entitled to all the credit of the same. The Memorial association will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Gibson house for the purpose of celebrating the victory, and transacting such business as may be necessary to bring the matter before the public at the April election.

THE MAD MISSOURI RIVER.

TERRIBLE DISASTER BY FLOOD AT MANDAN, DAKOTA.

Che River Comes to a Stand at Bismarck, After Having Reached Twelve Inches Higher Than Ever Before-Serious Trouble Feared at Points Below.

BISMARCK, Dak., March 23.—The river rose steadily until the middle of yesterday afternoon, when it came to a stand-still, and it is now falling. It reached twelve inches higher than ever before. The river is now clear of ice. The water has flooded all the lower part of Mandan. A telegraph line will be strung along solid ice to Mandan as soon as possible. The railroad tracks are now covered with ice. It will have to be cut

Those of the 300 delayed passengers now here who wish to cross the river will be transferred in boats. As soon as the water subsides sufficiently repairs will be made to the Northern Pacific bridge, which can be put in shape for use in two days. At 10 o'clock last night the river was stationary. There will be but little delay in travel from now on, whether the river subsides or not. People are continually passing between here and Manden in boats.

Parties who arrived from Mandan bring reports of a much worse flood in Mandan than has been described. The water has filled the basements of all business howses and many families in the lower part of the city narrowly escaped drowning. A family of husband, wife and two children, were taken from the attic of their house and were compelled to walk on the crust of ice for a quarter of a mile over water from ten to fifteen feet deep. The water is still rising. For over two miles, between Mandan and the river, no railroad track or telegraph poles can be seen, they having been swept away by the water. The citizens of the town are huddled together on high spots, and as the water is still rising they may all be driven to the bluff back of the town.

Editor Tuttle, of Mandan; Editor Marny, of Miles City, and six others armed the mselves with ropes and staves yesterday morning and left for Bismarck for Mandan across the ice. They tramped over two miles of broken ice, and after several of the party getting ducked, reached terra firma on the west bank. The greatest difficulty was experience I when near the Mandan side. The stream flowing across at the bottom of Main street kept a channel open, and the walking was very precarious, and things looked treacherous, but the party finally landed. The trip from the trestle to the Mandan shore was made in about an hour and a half. A good many of the streets are full in Mandan, but there is no suffering. The water is spreading over a vast extent of territory, and still rising slowly, but it is supposed the gorge will break before it rises much higher.

At Pierre, Dakota.

PIERRE, Dak., March 23.—The Missouri is rose six feet in six hours and the volume of ice choked the channel and threw huge blocks thirty feet square and three feet thick ten feet in the air. Fort Pierre, on the Sioux reservation and opposite Pierre, is partly submerged and the people are safely ensconced on the bluffs adjacent to the village. The rise exceeds that of March 27, 1881. As no gorge has as yet formed Pierre is safe. Eleven o'clock found the river at a standstill, with the running ice growing gradually less. Fears are now entertained that the break at Bismarck will be the cause of great trouble, and the citizens are preparing for the worst. Information has been received from Fort Sully that the river was rising there two feet an hour.

No News From the Racing Yachts. NEW YORK, March 23 .- Of the ocean steamships, which got in yesterday, only one, the steamship Rugia, which arrived late last night, saw anything like either of the racing yachts, Coronet and Dauntless. The Rugia on Friday last, about 1,100 miles almost due east of New York, passed at 2 o'clock in the morning a vessel which, as the log says, showed a white, red and blue night signal followed by a blue light. Whether it was a steam or sailing vessel and whither boun !. was not discovered. The New York yach club signal is red, green and white, gree might be mistaken for blue and the signa. may not have been carefully noted. The blue light which followed is the Dauntless distinguishing mark, and the vessel may have been the Dauntless.

A Sensational Story.

CHICAGO, March 2.3-Late last night Her man Kuebler, who was for some time under arrest, suspected of the murder of Frederick Wirth, the missing butcher, came to the Twenty-second street station and infolme the officers that Wirth's body would be found in the river near the red bridge, at Archer avenue. He said there were weights fas tened to it. Not much reliance was placed on Kuebler's story, as he had the appearance of an insane man. Officers were sent to the red bridge and are dragging the river in that vicinity, but so far their efforts have been

Their Love Stronger Thap Their Religion. DELPHI, Ind., March 23 .- A marriage and elopement in which Mr. Reno Isherwood, for several years past editor of the Delphi Times, and Miss Katie Brown, daughter of a prominent merchant, figure as principals, occurred Saturday night, and has just been made public. The marriage was opposed by the young Isherwood was a lady's parents because Protestant, they being Catholics. Unable to longer brook opposition they were quietly married by an Episcopal minister, and left for Charlotte, Mich. The editor and bride will return and sue for pardon.

Trial of the Alleged Rock Island Robbers. Morris, Ill., March 23.-The trial of Schwartz and Wait for the murder of Express Messenger Nichols has commenced here. The court quashed the tenth count in the indictment, which is the one alleging that the murder was committed on a railroad train without charging that it was committed in Grundy county. This is considered by the defense as very much in their favor, for they believe that the evidence will show that the erime could not have been committed in Grundy county.

WONDERFUL SURGERY.

Tendons from a Dog's Leg Transferred to a

Man's, Restoring Use of the Limb. NEW BEDFORD, Mass., March 23 .- The success of a wonderful surgical operation, performed in this city nearly a year ago, has just been demonstrated. Seventeen years ago Edward K. Russell met with an accident in which the tendons in one of his legs were severed, rendering the limb useless. The operation consisted of the transferring of two tendons from a dog, which had been etherize. I for the purpose, to Russell's limb, where they were united with the severed tendons in that member.

For ten months after the operation Russell was not allowed to use his leg, but within a few days he has been allowed to exercise it. He has now resumed his work, and has complete control of his limb, the operation having proved to be an entire success. This is the first time that this operation has been performed in this country, though it has been previously attempted with only partial Fell Through a Trestle.

LOVELAND, O., March 23 -Mr. John H. Wilson, of the Baltimore & Ohio express, was attracted by the cries of a man whom he found lying under a trestle, about one hundred yards east of Remington station, on the Cincinnati, Washington & Baltimore railroad. The injured man was placed in a ca-boose and brought to this place. Dr. Scott rendered medical assistance. The man bad one leg broken in two places and otherwise badly injured. He was walking along the track and went to step from one track to the other, when he stepped down through the trestle. He give his name as Samuel E. Pope, of Marlborough, N. H. He was sent to the Cincinnati hospital.

Increasing the Speed of Pitchers.

NEW YORK, March 23 .- Manager Kelly, of the Louisville club, has adopted a scheme by which the speed of pitchers can be greatly increased. The pitcher will be required to practice with a two pound iron ball, and the man who will pitch in each game will use it about half an hour before time is called. After having handled the iron ball for a few minutes an ordinary ball will feel light as a feather and can be thrown with great speed. All that will be required this year, Kelly says, is speed and control of the ball. Curves will not amount to much.

Willie Sells Confesses.

ERIE, Kas., March 23 .- Willie Sells, the boy murderer, who is under sentence of death for the killing of his father, mother, brother and sister, but who has always protested his innocence, has now confessed his guilt. He says his brother Watie first killed his father with a hatchet during a quarrel. Willie being enraged at this, seized the hatchet and killed Watie. Then finding that he was observed by his mother and sister, he killed them in the same way, being greatly excited and hardly knowing why he did it.

Lost on Ear in a Fight.

AUGUSTA, Ky., March 23.—Richard Riley and John Teel, Jr., between whom there was an old political feud, met on the highway several miles south of Augusta, Ky., and, as a matter of course, proceeded to fight it out. During the contest Teel succeeded in knocking Riley down, and getting his ear between his teeth, tore it off. The probabilities are that there will be further and more serious trouble.

JUDGE W. H. WILLIAMSON, who married the widow of General John H. Morgan, died at his home in Lebanon, Tenn., last week.

THE Free Turnpikers, of Bourbon County, have found a candidate for Representative at last. They area small band, but exhibit pluck. Certain defeat awaits them, however, next August.

THERE are lots of prohibitionists in right kind of men. both the Democratic and Republican party, but in the election of State officers next August, but very few of them will cast their vote for Judge Fox.

Or the eight or ten revenue officers in charge of the distilleries at Cynthiana, only one is a resident of Harrison County. Some of the Democrats over that way are disposed to "kick," and it seems they have good cause.

THE Emperor of Germany was ninety years old yesterday. It is a rare thing, indeed, for a ruler to reach such an age, and prince and peasant rejoiced with the venerable man, who controls the destiny of the German Empire.

THE Bourbon News thinks Lexington wants the earth, and intimates that "if newspaper wind and Chamber of Commerce resolutions win" the metropolis of the blue-grass region will get all she wants. Brother Champ shouldn't fret and worry himself over the matter. It's part of a newspaper's business nowadays to fight for the people who supports it, and to "boom" its home.

A COMPANY is being organized to bore for natural gas in or near this city. The stock is divided into shares of $25, and about thirty shares have already been taken. The property owners should not hesitate to invest in this undertaking. It will not take a great deal to test the matter, and where it is divided out among many the loss would be but trifling should no gas be found. Now is the time should no gas be found. Now is the time to decide the question.

AN INTERVIEW IN THE WATER.'

How a Woman Once Interviewed John Quincy Adams.

As a boy, being fond of bathing in the Potomac, I frequently resorted thither at early hours of summer mornings. The favorite point for such enjoyment was at "the sycamores," so called because a group of those trees stood on a certain part of the shore. The location was in the immediate vicinity of the present Washington monu-ment. There I had sometimes the honor of attempting to rival the natatory skill of John Quincy Adams. It was his custom to seek the refreshment of the River of Swans -Pow-tow-mack-at the dewy hours of 4 or 5 a. m. My young companions and I encircled him as minnows may swim about a whale, but with no fear, for among children he was as a child.

A strange incident occurred there one day. Mrs. Anne Royal, a stout, aged, and eccentric widow of a Revolutionary soldier, had come to Washington some time before and undertaken the publication of a weekly paper entitled "The Huntress," in size little beyond a sheet of foolscap, blurred print, and more typographical errors than lines. Biographical accounts of gentlemen of the cabinet and of congress were its main features, with notices, too, of distinguished ladies of the metropolis. If the elite furnished her, on her call, with proper data and proper pay, their lives were made glorious in the next number of the unique journal, and they were also presented as angels, either masculine or feminine; but if her visit, as did happen now and then, met with refusal, the imaginative editor would invent wonderful circumstances and attribute them to such personages. These, in publication, startled and even terrified the subects thereof and all their society friends. So it became necessary to buy off the vengeful madam and to obtain from her a pleasant report.

No paper of the period in Washington, not even the stately and venerable National Intelligencer, could compare in extent of local subscription with the list of "The Huntress." The active and resolute madam would have it, and made it so, by going from house to house, office to office, stores, departments of the government-in a word, everywhere.

The enterprising widow had long sought an opportunity to pay her respects to the Hon. John Quincy, but somehow-perhaps John Quincy knew-fate failed to favor She chanced to learn the early summer morning practice of his late excellency, and the very next day repaired to the river and the sycamores. There he was, serenely disporting. She looked on with self congratulation. The swimmer approached the shore at last, nearer and nearer, till he observed her ladyship in waiting, then, the stream admitting, stood, head and neck exposed above the surface.

Thus situated, a prisoner, she addressed him, introduced herself, and held sufficient talk to furnish subject for a fine article in the following "Huntress," which accomplished, she retired, and once more all was 'quiet on the Potomac."—Seaton Donoho in Brooklyn Magazine.

"Strange but nevertheless true." The animal that bit Rev. R. B. Garrett Monday night, while he was coming up Second near C. B. Pearce's residence, was not a worthless cur, but a musk-rat. The animal attacked Charlie Rudy, while he was passing shortly afterwards. Rudy returned with his dog and the rat was killed after a sharp fight. We believe it is the first time a musk-rat was ever known to attack a person, and it is hard to account for the animal's strange actions, as well as for its being found so far from a stream of water. Mr. Garrett's wound is still paining him considerably.

AT GERMANY'S CAPITAL.

CELEBRATING EMPEROR WILLIAM'S NINETY-FIRST BIRTHDAY.

Berlin a Blaze of Glory Over the Event. The Emperor in the Best of Health and Spirits-An All Night Session in the London House of Commons-Foreign.

BERLIN, March 23.-The ninetieth birthday of Emperor William was celebrated with great eclat throughout Germany. This city scrowded with people from all parts of the em pire and the world, who have come for the purpose of witnessing the ceremonies in honor of the event. The first-class hotels are filled with royalty. The weather was fine and the enthusiasm of the people unbounded.

The emperor continues in the best of health and spirits. He received the royal guests at the palace at 11 o'clock. The reception appeared in no way to fatigue him, and he repeatedly appeared at one of the windows bowing his acknowledgment of the enthusiastic cheers which reached his ears from the crowds on the street below.

Rumors are flying thick and fast of important appointments and promotions.

Among them are the statement that the grand duke of Baden is to be made king of Baden, and that Prince Bismarck is to be reated duke of Lavenburg.

Archduke Rudolph, the crown prince of Austria, who represents the house of Hapsburg at the festivities, had a prolonged con-ference with Prince Bismarck to-day during which the chancellor assured him that Germany's policy was pacific, and that the peace of Europe for the present year at least was now assured. The disquietude in the east and west, Prince Bismarck declared, was also without cause.

All Night Session.

LONDON, March 23.-The house of commons has been in session all night and is still sitting. The time has been consumed in efforts by the government to dispose of the civil service credits of the naval office. The Parnellites are contesting every step, and resorting to every available means for obstructing their passage. The house is sitting in committee of supply. The discussion on the items of credit requested by the government for the use of the civil service branch of the naval office is for the most part of a farcical character and there is no likelihood of the committee rising, Mr. William Henry Smith, the Conservative leader of the house, having declared that the credits must be passed before the house adjourns.

The Naval Review.

LONDON, March 23.-The naval review in honor of the queen's jubilee will take place on July 23, on which occasion the house of commons will-be adjourned and the members witness the spectacle in a body.

ROME. March 23 .- A slight shock of earthquake was felt yesterday at Mentone, where the people are still camping out under temporary shelter.

The Blackwood Kidnaping Case.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 23.—The case of this state, by the Georgia authorities continues to become more interesting. Richardson has received from Governor Gordon a reply to his request to have proceedings against Blackwood stayed until further investigation. Governor Gordon telegraphs that he is unable to stay the proeeedings, but will do all in his power to have justice done. Four indictments for forgery have been made out in Augusta against Blackwood. The Georgia press is indignant ever the stand Governor Richardson has taken and the papers of this state are pretty hot about the proceedings of the Georgia officials. The circumstances of Blackwood's arrest are as follows: He was in his house, attending at the bedside of his wife, who was in a dying condition. Two strangers came to the door at 11 p. m. and asked for a drink of water. Blackwood took it to them and was confronted by a pair of revolvers in his face. He was handcuffed and the house searched for evidence of his guilt, and then his kidnapers took him across the river into Georgia.

Cincinnati's Centennial.

CINCINNATI, March 23.-At a special meeting of the centennial exposition commissioners last evening, Mr. John E. Nicholson, who did such good work in raising the guarantee funds for the two last expositions, was given charge of the present one. An invite was received from Mr. Kerper to the commissioners and members of the press to take a ride out on the Mount Adams & Eden Park road to view the proposed Eden Park exposition site next Monday at 2 p. m. The location of the exposition has not yet been decided upon, and there is much to commend in the Eden Park proposition.

Railroad Election.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—The directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company's annual election is in progress to-day. All the present board will be re-elected, there being no opposition. An incident was the appearance of Mr. Clarence Cary, the New York attorney for the so-called London committee that demanded a distribution of the company's surplus. He presented six proxies but was told that he could only vote three in his own name, as there was a state law against tt. The proxies were refused and the lawyer said he expected it.

Charged With Conspiracy. New York, March 23. - Four hundred and fifty employes in Hanan & Son's shoe factory went out on a strike yesterday, and the firm got out warrants for the arrest of the executive committee of District Assembly 91, who, it was alleged, ordered the strike on the charge of conspiracy. John Gill and John Foster, of the executive committee, were arrested to-day and held in $500 bail, which was furnished. McDonald, Worley and Campbell, the remaining members of the executive committee, say they are willing to give themselves up.

A $25,000 Eye.

NEW YORK, March 23.-James S. Dolan sued the Metropolitan Exhibition company for $25,000 in the supreme court to-day before Judge Donohue, for causing him the game of base ball at the Polo grounds on June 18 last, his eye was struck and destroyed by a foul-tipped ball, and he claims that the company should have erected a netting to prevent such accidents.
